FOREWORD

“The real Freemason is distinguished from the rest of Mankind by the uniform unrestrained rectitude of his conduct. Other men are honest in fear of punishment which the law might inflict; they are religious in expectation of being rewarded, or in dread of the devil, in the next world.

“A Freemason would be just if there were no laws, human or divine except those written in his heart by the finger of his Creator. In every climate, under every system of religion, he is the same. He venerates the good men of all religions. He disturbs not the religion of others. He restrains his passions because, they cannot be indulged without injuring his neighbour or himself. He contracts no debts which he is certain he cannot discharge, because he is honest upon principle.”

The Definition of a Freemason from the Farmer's Almanac, 1823.

1) INTRODUCTION

The Zetland Hall Trustees (“the Trustees”) are obliged by law, pursuant to Section 4 of the Zetland Hall Trustees Incorporation Ordinance (CAP 1055) (“the Ordinance”) to “manage and maintain a hall or halls to be used, occupied and enjoyed as a meeting place for the members of the lodges”.

At present, the premises at No. 1 Kennedy Road, Hong Kong namely Zetland Hall (“ZH”) are provided to meet that obligation, and by Section 5 of the Ordinance the Trustees are empowered to “charge such fees, rents and charges for the use of the properties of the Trustees as may seem expedient to the Trustees”.

The facilities of Zetland Hall are used by four classes of person (together “users of ZH”):

- a) Masonic lodges, chapters, councils, conclaves, and other similar organisations of which to be a member one must be a Freemason (“ZH masonic lodges”)
- b) Members of ZH masonic lodges who are ordinarily resident in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China (“HKSAR”) (“Resident masons”)
- c) Members of ZH masonic lodges who are not ordinarily resident in the HKSAR (“Non-resident masons”)
- d) Non-masons and non-masonic organisations (“Non-masonic ZH users”)

The Trustees have decided to consolidate and clarify the various practices that have evolved in the management of Zetland Hall, and the relationship the Trustees and Zetland Hall management have with those using its facilities, and for that purpose they have published these House Rules.

THE CONTINUED USE OF THE FACILITIES OF ZETLAND HALL BY A USER OF THOSE FACILITIES SHALL DENOTE ACCEPTANCE OF AND SHALL BIND THE USER TO THE TERMS OF THESE HOUSE RULES AND THE APPENDICES THERETO.

Any decision to suspend a mason for the reasons set out in paragraphs 3(a) to (d) of Appendix B shall be within the sole discretion of the Trustees and if for the reasons set out in paragraphs 3(a) to (c) will result in the suspended mason being banned from entering or remaining on the premises of Zetland Hall, and if for the reason set out in paragraph 3(d) alone, will result in the mason having his privilege of using the food and beverage facilities of Zetland Hall suspended.

Resident masons who are not exempted from paying the Zetland Hall user fee will continue to be charged the user fee during their period of suspension.

Any Resident or Non-resident mason who fails to pay any monies properly due and owing to the Trustees within 120 days of payment being due, or who has been excluded or suspended from Freemasonry for any reason, shall have his privilege of using the facilities of Zetland Hall terminated forthwith. Termination shall not in any way affect his liability to pay all monies due and owing to the Trustees or the rights of the Trustees to recover those monies from him.

4) RESIGNATION OF PRIVILEGES

Any ZH masonic lodge that ceases to hold any of its regular meetings at Zetland Hall shall be deemed to no longer be a ZH masonic lodge for the purposes of these rules.

Any Resident or Non-resident mason who ceases to be a Full or Honorary member of at least one ZH masonic lodge shall no longer be entitled to enjoy the facilities of Zetland Hall. He shall remain liable for all fees and other monies due by him to the Trustees at the date his cessation becomes effective, and he may not visit Zetland Hall as a guest until he has paid in full all monies due and owing by him to the Trustees.

Any Resident or Non-resident mason may resign his privilege of using the facilities of Zetland Hall by giving notice in writing to the Secretary of the Trustees. His resignation shall be effective from the end of the calendar month in which such notice was given by him, after which his privilege of using the facilities of Zetland Hall will be terminated, and he shall be exempted from paying further Zetland Hall user fees. He shall remain liable for all fees and other monies due by him to the Trustees at the date his resignation becomes effective, and he may not visit Zetland Hall as a guest until he has paid in full all monies due and owing by him to the Trustees.

Any mason excluded from the privilege of using the facilities of Zetland Hall whether by suspension, termination or by his own resignation of such privilege, shall not be re-admitted to those privileges and may not visit Zetland Hall as a guest until he has paid in full all monies due and owing by him to the Trustees.

The right and privilege to enjoy the facilities of Zetland Hall is personal and shall neither be transferable by a mason himself nor by operation of law.

5) REINSTATEMENT OF PRIVILEGES

A mason who has been excluded from the privilege of using the facilities of Zetland Hall whether by suspension, termination or by his own resignation of such privilege may, upon expiration of the period of suspension, if any, and payment of all monies due by him to the Trustees, apply in writing for reinstatement of those privileges.

Where such application for reinstatement of privilege is made within 12 months of the date of the exclusion it must be made by the mason to the General Manager and shall be accompanied by payment of the Zetland Hall user fee that may be outstanding for the period since the date of the exclusion.

Where the application is made more than 12 months after the date of exclusion, it shall be made on his behalf by the Secretary or equivalent of a ZH masonic lodge of which he is a member. In those circumstances, he shall not be required to pay the Zetland Hall user fee for the period since the date of the exclusion.

The Trustees shall make the final determination as to whether or not any mason shall be reinstated to the privilege of using the facilities of Zetland Hall.

APPENDIX C

FOOD & BEVERAGE

1) GENERAL

No person may bring food, drinks, or other refreshments into Zetland Hall without the prior consent of the General Manager.

A corkage charge is levied on brought in alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages and food stuffs. Details of the current corkage charges may be obtained from the General Manager or bar staff.

The current food and beverage menus and details of booking procedures are available at the bar and on the Zetland Hall website. Items not on the current menus may be made available by special arrangement with the Executive Chef, who may be contacted via the bar staff for details.

The current range of takeaways and seasonal offers, such as Christmas and Chinese New Year hampers, are available on the Zetland Hall website.

Food and beverage prices are determined by the Trustees from time to time.

2) BANQUETING RULES

Reservations for scheduled banquets should be made using the food and beverage booking form, which must be submitted to the Food and Beverage department at least four working days before the banquet, at which time the final number of diners must also be confirmed.

Changes to a booking or the number of diners cannot be made within four working days of the banquet. All meals booked by this deadline must be paid for in full, unless the banquet cannot be held due to the inclement weather conditions detailed in Section 2(h) of the House Rules, or due to other unforeseen circumstances that prevent the use of Zetland Hall.

At banquets following both regular and installation meetings of individual ZH masonic lodges, only the reserved meal, the alternative main course, the vegetarian main course and either the fried rice or noodle dish may be ordered. No other meals will be available.

All diners must complete the banquet signing in form before the meeting. Failure to do so may result in no meal being available at the banquet for those who have not registered their intention to dine on the signing in form.

To avoid and hopefully eliminate the cost of food spoilage and wastage, all meals reserved on the signing in form must be paid for. All meals served, including any alternative selections and/or special meals, will be charged at the same price as the reserved meal.

Food items may not be ordered or changed at the dining table.

In exceptional cases where special dietary requirements are involved, the Food and Beverage department should be informed of the details within the booking deadline. Whilst every effort will be made to accommodate such requests, these will be subject to availability.

3) DINING ROOM ALLOCATION

Generally, the banquet hall is allocated to the ZH masonic lodge meeting in the Blue Room, and the bar area is allocated to the ZH masonic lodge meeting in the Red Room, unless a ZH masonic lodge usually dines out, in which case no dining area will be reserved. Any requests for changes must be agreed upon by the ZH masonic lodges concerned and the General Manager. Decisions on dining room allocation rest solely with the Trustees.

4) WHITE TABLE BANQUETS

Ladies and non-masonic guests may attend White Table banquets following masonic meetings. Children under the age of 18 years may only attend White Table banquets on Saturdays.

As a courtesy to other lodges meeting in Zetland Hall on the same day, a lodge expecting ladies, non-masons and/or children as guests, must make the Master or Secretary of the other lodge(s) aware of this.

5) PRIVATE BOOKINGS

The bar area may be reserved by ZH masonic lodges at no cost for committee meetings and rehearsals. Masonic events with a limited number of attendees may be arranged at the discretion of the General Manager.

The bar area may be reserved by Resident and Non-resident masons for masonic and non-masonic events. Non-masonic guests may only attend such events until 4.00pm on days when a masonic banquet is scheduled. The Trustees reserve the right to make a reasonable charge for the use of the room in their absolute discretion in these circumstances.

The banquet hall and bar area (subject to availability) may be reserved for both masonic and non-masonic events, including ladies' nights, by any user of Zetland Hall. Application forms for these "Private events and Functions" can be obtained from the bar, the Administration Office, or downloaded from the Zetland Hall website. The terms and conditions for Private Events and Functions are set out in Appendix F to these rules. Public events and functions are not permitted. For further details and prices please contact the General Manager.

Reservations for all rehearsals, meetings or private events and functions should be made with the General Manager.

6) PAYMENT FOR FOOD & BEVERAGE

Resident masons whose accounts are paid by Autopay and ZH masonic lodges may charge the cost of food and beverage to their account with the Trustees.

If the cost of food and beverage is not charged to an account with the Trustees, it must be paid for on the day of purchase by Visa or Mastercard, for which a 3% levy on the net sum due shall be charged, by Octopus, or by prior arrangement with the General Manager, by cheque, in which case only personal cheques or cheques drawn on the bank accounts of ZH masonic lodges are accepted. Payments may not be made in cash.

- ii) A mason will be required to pay for any replacement or duplication of the key to the locker allocated to him.
- iii) A mason's use of the locker allocated to him is entirely at his own risk; the Trustees shall not be liable for any loss of and/or damage (howsoever caused) to the mason's personal property kept in the locker, or any accident and/or personal injury (howsoever caused) by his use of the locker.

- iv) A mason is required to surrender the locker allocated to him when he ceases to fulfil the eligibility criteria in paragraph 2(b) (i) above.
- v) Debit notes for lockers already allocated will be issued in January of each year; those for lockers allocated to an individual later in the year will be issued in the month of allocation.

The locker rental fee for Grand, Large, Small and Sword Lockers is calculated on an annual basis and must be paid in advance. There is no refund of the rental fee or any part of it when the mason surrenders the locker(s) allocated to him.

The District and Provincial Grand Masters' room rental fees are calculated on an annual basis, charged to the respective District and Provincial Grand Lodge, and must be paid in advance. The payment of any fees by brethren who are allocated a locker(s) within these rooms is at the discretion of the respective District or Provincial Grand Master.

- vi) If payment of the locker rental fee is not received within three months from the date of the annual debit note requiring payment, the security deposit will be forfeited, and the locker will be opened, and its contents removed. The locker may then be allocated to another mason without further notice. The contents removed from the locker will be kept for the mason's collection for a period of six months. If the mason fails to collect the contents by the end of that six-month period they will be disposed of.
- vii) The Trustees reserve the right to refuse to rent a locker to any mason who habitually disregards any of these rules.

3) DOWNSTAIRS CHANGING ROOM

Resident and Non-resident masons and their masonic guests are welcome to use the facilities of the small changing room located in the basement of Zetland Hall. These include a shower, toilet, coat hooks and benches, and a shoe polishing machine.

Clothing and personal effects kept in the changing room are left at the risk of the user and must not be left there over-night.

Those using the changing room must keep it in a clean and tidy condition.

4) UPSTAIRS STORAGE AREA

The storage area located on the third floor of Zetland Hall is intended as a repository for papers, records and masonic paraphernalia belonging to ZH masonic lodges, and for the storage of Knights Templar and similar regalia belonging to individuals. Discrete spaces have been allocated for the use of all ZH masonic lodges and all items stored there must remain within the allocated space. There must be no migration of stored items into the spaces allocated to other ZH masonic lodges and the areas around the storage spaces must be kept as tidy as possible.

The Trustees may set fees from time to time for the use of the storage spaces and for storing Knights Templar and similar regalia.

Meetings may be re-allocated within the same calendar year, or at other times as determined by the Trustees, without further payment of room rental.

No refund will be made of any room rental due or paid in respect of any meeting which is not rescheduled.

The giving of gratuities to individual employees of Zetland Hall is prohibited. The Trustees now operate a staff gratuity scheme whereby Resident masons are invoiced in December of each year for a sum equivalent to one twelfth of the annual Zetland Hall user fee to be paid into a staff gratuity fund administered by the Trustees.

Payment into the fund is entirely voluntary and a Resident mason may choose to opt out or vary his gratuity by informing the General Manager by 15th December in any year. All monies collected are distributed to Zetland Hall staff members in the sole discretion of the Trustees.

Resident masons whose accounts are not paid by Autopay and Non-resident masons may settle their accounts and pay for goods and services provided by the Trustees by bank transfer, by Visa or Mastercard, for which a 3% levy on the net sum due shall be charged, or by personal cheque. ZH masonic lodges may settle their accounts by bank transfer, by cheques drawn on the organisation's bank account, or by prior arrangement with the General Manager, by personal cheque. Payments may not be made in cash.

All accounts, unless stated otherwise, are due and payable upon presentation and are considered to be overdue if not paid in full 30 days thereafter.

If a Resident or Non-resident mason's account is not paid within 60 days of presentation, his name will be posted on the Zetland Hall notice board and an administration fee equivalent to one-twelfth of the annual Zetland Hall user fee will be charged to his account. If the account is not cleared within 120 days of presentation, his privilege of using the facilities of Zetland Hall will be terminated. If all outstanding charges on his account are subsequently cleared, he may apply to the Trustees for reinstatement of those privileges. On reinstatement, an administration fee equivalent to one-sixth of the annual Zetland Hall user fee will be charged to his account.
